In Brief

St. Paul to host craft, holiday bazaar

LAPEER — St. Paul Lutheran Church, School will host a Craft & Holiday Bazaar from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Nov. 13 at the school and church, 90 Millville Rd.

Many vendors will be available with candles, wooden items, hand sewn items, educational toys, jewelry, and an Avon representative, just to name a few. Admission is $1 per person, or $3 per family which includes three or five tickets to use for door prize drawings.

St. Paul will also serve its traditional turkey luncheon for $5. There will be organized activities for children for your shopping convenience. Table space is still available.

To rent a table or for more information, contact Cathy or Sheri in the church office at 810-664- 6653.

Book signing set for Oct. 23

LAPEER — The Bookshelf downtown Lapeer will host a book signing for two local authors on Oct. 23.

Jason and Ann Cowan of Metamora will be in the book store from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. to sign copies and discuss the contents of their book

The Chore Solution: Making Families Better by

Working Together published by Mixed Up Books.

The book, written for parents, discusses assigning chores for children, teaching them to help around the house, build self-confidence, and develop strong work habits for the future.
